PREPARING FOR WAR.

Guatemala Has Bought 60,000 New Rifles for the Army.

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—A special to the World from Guatemala says: In government circles the report is current that the government has ordered 60,000 new Mauser rifles for the army in payment of which the custom receipts have been mortgaged and important concessions in lands were given to the persons arranging the transaction.

Mexico, it is said, will exact, besides her original demands, a heavy indemnity for expenses incurred in mobilizing her troops.

Cesarino Garza, the famous Mexican bandit, has offered his services, report has it, to President Barrios against Mexico.

SUGAR MEN WANT RELIEF.

Louisiana Planters Say They Are Poor and Need the Bounty.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—Senator Blanche today presented a petition numerously signed by cane sugar planters of western Louisiana for the payment of the bounty of 1894.

The petitioners represent that they are poor people; that relying upon the government to pay the bounty they had contracted obligations which in view of the refusal of the treasury to pay the bounty they represented, certain to bring ruin upon them unless relief is furnished.
They report that much of their outlay was for implements for sugar cane culture which are useless for other work.

BREIDENBACH CARELESS.

He Talks Very Freely for the Leader of a Political Party.

Chairman John W. Breidenbach of the Populist state central committee, the only big People's Party man who has generally guarded against saying more publicly than is wise was out at Larned this week examining one of the local banks and the editor of the Democratic paper, the Eagle-Optic interviewed him.

Chairman Breidenbach said he was going to try and retain his office under the Republican administration. He said: "I shall make my fight on the assumption that I am the only man who has ever been confirmed as bank commissioner by the state senate, and although the term is for four years, there is no specified time for such term to begin. I will hold on until the courts render a decision. The Republicans 'froze out' everything in sight two years ago and I am going to give them a dose of their own medicine."

Speaking of the proposed resubmission movement he said, "I have been invited to become vice president of the proposed resubmission league of which Col.
C. K. Holliday is president. I am a Prohibitionist, but I believe we ought to have a constitutional convention. The state needs a new constitution, and a convention to form one could take up all the side issues, including both Prohibition and woman suffrage. I believe that the people would sustain Prohibition if they were called upon to vote on it again."

Chairman Breidenbach opened his heart with the editor of the Eagle-Optic asked him what he thought of Senator John Martin and Editor J. B.
Chapman, he said: "They are fools. I don't see how Chapman holds his paper (The Topeka Press) up. As for Martin, he is a tyrant to those under him and the Democrats I believe say he is a traitor.
By men like Larned's Ledra and Silver, Martin is looked up to as a potentate when in reality he is a demagogical tyrant. He is truly a statesman who will soon be out of a job and will be left mightily to himself."

Prof. R. Ogden Doremus, of Bellevue Medical College, New York City, reports:
"I find Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder composed of pure materials and compounded on correct scientific principles. Its yield of carbonate of sodium is greater than that of any other powder."

HENDERSON AFTER SNOW.

The Well Known Lawyer Wants $10,000 Damages for a Newspaper Charge.

Col. Ben S. Henderson of Kansas City, Kan., but who lived in Winfield until recently, is in Topeka today.

To a JOURNAL reporter Col. Henderson said: "I am here for the purpose of bringing a suit for damages against State Printer E. H. Snow and W. J. Costigan, editor of the Ottawa Journal. I expected to employ J. C. Waters, but he is not in the city, and I have turned the matter over to E. H. Austin, who will look after the preliminaries. I have stood their attacks as long as I can. I intend to ask for $10,000."

The article upon which Colonel Henderson will base his suit is an editorial which appeared in the Ottawa Journal of November 15, charging him with embezzling money from an eastern firm for which he was attorney.

State Printer Snow's paper has severely criticized Henderson ever since he refused to support the Lowelling administration.

FOR KILLING WARD.

Two Men Arrested for Murdering a Wealthy Bachelor Near Lawrence.

LAWRENCE, Dec. 22.—Officers this morning arrested Thomas Kincaid and Walter Kiel who are suspected of complicity in the murder of William Ward of Williamstown about three weeks ago. Both have been in hiding since then till today, and had been overheard to make remarks that indicated they knew something about the deed.

Ward was a wealthy bachelor, who lived alone on his farm, and who was called out one night and shot dead by unknown assassins.

Burglars at Cherokee.

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 22.—A special to the Star from Cherokee, Kan., says:

plate glass show window of J. N. Collins' jewelry store and abstracted a quantity of valuable jewelry. Two strangers have been arrested on suspicion and lodged in jail.

TEXAS WANTS THE FIGHT.

No Objection Would Be Offered to Corbett-Fitzsimmons Fight, It Is Said.

GALVESTON, Tex., Dec. 22.—It is stated that the International and Great Northern railway is making a strong effort to have the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight pulled off at San Antonio in the event it should transpire that the battle can not be fought at Jacksonville, Fla., as was originally intended.

It is not thought probable that there will be any objections interposed by Gov. Culberson should the fight be ac-cured for the Mission City. Upon that point, a prominent attorney, who is pretty close to the governor-elect, said that he felt sure that there would be no trouble and that in his opinion no legal objection could be made.

$33,900,675 in excess of the requirements of the 25 per cent rule.
